From this information it was clear that inspection u/s 17 was in fact proposed at an address where the institution has not been functioning, this address is actually society's address. In view of the above the Council came to the conclusion that there was adequate justification in accepting the appeal and remanding the case to the WRC for causing composite inspection of the new premises for all the NCTE's recognized teacher training programme of the institution and for further decision thereafter..

F.No.89 - 261/2010 - Appeal

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION

Hans Bhawan, Wing II, 1, Bahadurshah Zafar Marg, New Delhi - 110 002

01/06/2010

ORDER

WHEREAS the appeal of Aster College of Education {Smt. Angoori Devi Educational & Cultural Society (Regd.)}, Gautam Budh Nagar, Uttar Pradesh dated 13/04/2010 is against the Order No. F.NRC/NCTE/F-3/UP-1064/157th Meeting/2010/20003-20004 dated 13/04/2010 of the Northern Regional Committee, refusing recognition for conducting B.Ed course (additional intake) on the grounds "1) The deficiencies communicated to the institute through letter F.NO.NRC/NCTE/UP-1064/155th Meeting/2009/15721 dated 29/01/2010 still exist as the reply has not been submitted by the management. 2) The land is not in the name of Institution. 3) Titles of books are not as per NCTE norms for B.Ed. 4) All labs are ill equipped. 5) The same building is being used for running Middle & Sr. Secondary Schools which is against the NCTE norms for B.Ed. 6) Only ten computers are available both for B.Ed. and M.Ed. courses".

AND WHEREAS the Correspondent, Aster College of Education {Smt. Angoori Devi Educational & Cultural Society (Regd.)} (hereinafter referred to as the appellant), preferred an appeal dated 13/04/2010 to the National Council for Teacher Education, New Delhi (hereinafter referred to as the Council) under Section 18 of the NCTE Act, 1993 against the said Order.

AND WHEREAS Shri. H.S. Sharma, Chairman and Shri. V.K. Sharma, Secretary, Aster College of Education {Smt. Angoori Devi Educational & Cultural Society (Regd.)}, Gautam Budh Nagar, Uttar Pradesh presented the case of the appellant institution on 01-05-2010. In the appeal and during personal presentation, it was submitted that the institution had replied to the show cause notice well before the appointed time i.e on 11-02-10; the land was leased in favour of Smt. Angoori Devi Educational and Cultural Society by the Greater Noida Industrial Development Authority and the lease deed as well as supplementary lease deed were signed between Greater Noida and the society; the library of the institution was having 6128 books of B.Ed. consisting of 1106 titles and 2047 M.Ed. books which are as per NCTE norms; all labs are well-equipped in conformity with standard laid down with NCTE; the VT report did not point out any deficiency that middle and senior secondary schools were also being run in the same building where B.Ed. was run and the institution was having a total of 14 computers and in addition server computer was also located in the room of Principal.

AND WHEREAS the Council noted that the Aster College of Education, J-I Sector 9, Greater Noida was granted recognition for B.Ed. course with an intake of 200 students vide NRC's order No. F.NRC/NCTE/F.3/UP-1064/2003 dated 24.01.2004. Subsequently, the NCTE (Headquarters), vide its letter No. 48.-3/2004/NCTE (N&S) dated 23.12.2004, asked all the Regional Committees to obtain the staff list of teaching staff appointed through a due selection process, in respect of all the teacher training institutions recognized by the Regional Committees from 01.01.2004 to 31.12.2004 and take further action in this regard. Accordingly, the NRC, vide its letter dated 30.03.2005, called for details regarding staff statement showing their qualification, experience etc from the Aster College of Education within 15 days. As no reply was received from the institution, the NRC issued a show cause notice dated 09.01.2006 asking the institution why its recognition should not be withdrawn on account of non-compliance with reference to NRC's letter dated 30.03.2005. Subsequently, the NCTE (Headquarters) got an inspection of the institution conducted under Section 13 of the NCTE Act, 1993 on 01.08.2006 with a view to ascertain whether the institution was functioning in accordance with the provisions of the Act. The report of the visiting team of experts on inspection of the institution dated 01.08.2006 pointed out a number of deficiencies including that the institution was not having a Principal and that no faculty approved by the affiliating CCS University was appointed. The NCTE Headquarters, communicated the deficiency to the NRC asking the NRC to take appropriate action under Section 17 of the NCTE Act after following the due procedure, as the deficiencies were serious in nature and violated NCTE norms. After issuing a show cause notice dated 30.03.09 and considering the reply thereto dated 02.04.09 of the institution, the NRC in its 141st meeting held on 22nd to 24th May, 2009 decided to withdraw the recognition and accordingly, the NRC withdrew the recognition of the institution for B.Ed. course with an intake of 200 students vide its order No.F.NRC/F-3/UP-1064/2009 dated 04.01.2009 on the ground that from the reply submitted by the institution, it was clear that the deficiencies pointed out on the basis of inspection conducted under Section 13 existed and that the reply submitted by the institution was not found satisfactory. The institution filed an appeal dated 22.06.2009 against the said decision of NRC taken in its 141st meeting dated 22nd to 24th May, 2009, to the Council. The Council, vide its order N0.89-646/2009-Appeal dated 11.09.2009, remanded the case back to the NRC for causing a composite inspection of the institution to verify the available infrastructure and instructional facilities for all the teacher training programmes in B.Ed (2 units) and M.Ed. Accordingly, the NRC got an inspection of the institution conducted on 19.12.2009 by a visiting team of experts. The VT Report dated 19.12.2009, inter-alia, pointed out that only 10 computers were in working condition with licensed software, books in the library was not classified properly, only 700 titles were available, though principal plus 14 lecturer were shown on record, only eight lecturers were available at the time of inspection, items in the science lab were less in number, apparatus in psychology lab was less in number, B.Ed. students were being taken to their school science lab for practical purposes. The NRC, issued a show-cause notice dated 29.01.2010 on the grounds that land was not in the name of the institution, only ten computers were available for both B.Ed. and M.Ed. courses, titles of books were not as per NCTE norms for B.Ed., all labs were ill equipped and the same building was used for running middle and Senior Secondary school which was against the NCTE norms for B.Ed. After considering the reply dated 10.02.2010 (received in NRC offer an 11.2.2010), the NRC, vide its order dated 13.04.2010, refused recognition for B.Ed. course, against which the appeal under consideration was filed by the institution. the Council also noted that the order dated 13.04.2010 issued by the NRC refusing recognition to the institution for B.Ed. course was not in order as (i) the institution was already recognised and, therefore, refusing recognition to an institution already recognized did not arise, (ii) the ground that deficiencies communicated to the institute through letter F.No. NRC/NCTE UP/-1064/ 155th meeting /2009 dated 29.01.2010 still existed as reply was not submitted by institution, was not correct. The institution submitted its reply dated 10.02.2010 (received in NRC offices on 11.02.2010) which was available on the file and the same was also referred to by the NRC in its said order dated 13.04.2010. In view of above, the Council came to the conclusion that there was some justification in accepting the appeal and remanding the case to the NRC for issuing a revised speaking order by restoring recognition for basic unit of B.Ed. course only, but the recognition for the additional unit of B.Ed. course shall be withdrawn

AND WHEREAS after perusal of documents, memorandum of appeal, VT Report, affidavit and after considering oral arguments advanced during hearing, the Council reached the conclusion that there was enough ground to accept the appeal, set aside the order of the NRC dt. 13-04-10 and remand the case to the NRC for issuing a revised speaking order by restoring recognition for basic unit of B.Ed. course only, but the recognition for the additional unit of B.Ed. course shall be withdrawn. Accordingly, the case was remanded to the NRC.

NOW THEREFORE, the Council hereby remands back the case of Aster College of Education {Smt. Angoori Devi Educational & Cultural Society (Regd.)}, Gautam Budh Nagar, Uttar Pradesh to the NRC, NCTE, for necessary action as indicated above.
